

Computer facilities have become a necessity in today's modern world to keep young students at par with awareness across the globe. But across India it is still sparsely distributed. At one hand Kerala with more than 90% of schools with computer facility and on other there is Bihar, Assam, Jharkhand and Chhattisgarh with less than 10% of schools with computer facilities.

Source: MOSPI