

The Teacher – Pupil Ratio is another indicator which helps in analysing the growth in school education. The Teacher - Pupil ratio for each state shows a decline which indicates the number of students taken care by a single teacher, lower the number better is for the society. Uttar Pradesh, West Bengal and Bihar registered highest decline in this ratio.

Source: MOSPI