

During the period 2004-05 and 2013-14, Rajasthan and Jharkhand have shown significant improvement in their respective share of mining output to national total. Apparently there is a sharp decline (from 32% to 16%) in the share of mining output of the rest of the states not listed as major states here.

Source: MOSPI