

Girl's toilets are a necessity for encouraging girls to attend schools. Several reports and studies have concluded that to improve girls attendance in schools girls toilet are very critical. Over a decade the schools with girls toilets have improved considerably but there are states such as Orissa, Himachal Pradesh which are still lagging behind. Ideally it should reach to a 100% level within few years.

Source: MOSPI